23rd September 2019

Dear Parent/Carer,

16 Jesus told his disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup> So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.'

<sup>3</sup> "The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg— <sup>4</sup> I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.'

<sup>5</sup> "So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

"The manager told him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.'

<sup>7</sup> "Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?'

"A thousand bushels<sup>[b]</sup> of wheat,' he replied.

"He told him, 'Take your bill and make it eight hundred.'

<sup>8</sup> "The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. <sup>9</sup> I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

<sup>10</sup> "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. <sup>11</sup> So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? <sup>12</sup> And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?

<sup>13</sup> "No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

This passage contains some of Jesus's strongest and most explicit warnings about the dangers of wealth, and experience suggests that neither the church nor the world has taken these warnings to heart sufficiently. As soon as we begin to think of money, or land, or other people as commodities we might own or exploit, we take a step away from our vocation to be truly human beings, God's true children, and towards the other master, who is always ready to accept new servants.

Parent Governor

Congratulations to Mr Humprey Irabor, who has been elected as a parent governor to the governing body.

Assembly

There will be a class assembly for 6K on Friday, 27th September 2019 at 9:05 am; parents with children in this class are warmly welcome.

Pupil Targets

Children in years 2-6 will be bringing home the English and Maths targets that they are focusing on for this half term. Please find opportunities to support your child at home to achieve these targets.

Reading Volunteers

We are looking for volunteers to support our children with their reading throughout the day. If you are interested and have some time during the day please contact Ms Debernardis through the school office (0208 534 0476) or by emailing the school info account at info@st-francis.newham.sch.uk to express your interest.

What we need:

- 1 hour a week of your time
- read with some children
- ask them questions
- talk to them about the book
- have fun!

Curriculum Meetings

Over the next few weeks, we will be holding curriculum meetings for Nursery. The meeting will provide information about the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) curriculum, what your child will be learning throughout the year, how you can help your child at home and applying for full time school for children currently in Nursery.

The meeting is as follows:

Thursday 3rd October 2019 at 5:30 p.m. - Nursery

Unfortunately, crèche facilities are not available for these meetings.
